

Lindsay Bangs

lindsaybangs.com lindsayebangs@gmail.com
613.464.8858

Education

Carleton University

September 2012 - Current

Bachelor of Computer Science: Mobile Computing

Available for 4, 8, or 12 months starting September 2015

- Fourth-Year Standing
- 11.0 of 12.0 CGPA, Dean's List

Skills

Technical

- Programming in Java, Objective-C, C++
- Android and iPhone development using SDKs
- Web Development using HTML5, CSS, Java Server Pages

Interaction Design

- Designing and creating wireframes in Balsamiq
- Creating HTML mockups which are used in development
- Gathering user requirements and performing user-based testing

Communication

- Presenting in front of large groups of people
- Explaining concepts to other students while studying

Teamwork

- Developing and modifying applications as part of an Agile team
- Collaborating with the Carleton Computer Science Society to offer services and run events
- Working with other teaching assistants to ensure consistency while grading

Experience

Industry Canada: Business Solutions Development Directorate

Interaction Designer

May 2015 – Current

- Designed the interface for an internal time-tracking application using wireframes and mockups
- Modified existed web applications to convert them to a newer framework and apply the Canada.ca theme

Carleton University

Teaching Assistant

September 2013 – April 2015

- Graded and provided feedback on student assignments
- Provided assistance to students during scheduled office hours

Research Assistant

May – August 2014

- Recipient of an Undergraduate Student Research Award
- Performed studies on the accuracy of Location-Based Services on iOS and Android devices

Carleton Computer Science Society

President

May 2014 – April 2015

- Representative of the students of Computer Science at Carleton University
- Provided communication between various external groups and the Board of Directors
- Directed meetings to ensure that they proceeded in a calm and efficient manner

Secretary

May 2013 – April 2014

- Scheduled and prepared monthly meetings
- Monitored and documented various portfolios and committees
- Coordinated volunteers and formed schedules for office administration